*This company was known at various times as Captain Rountree's Company and (1st) Company C. Bates' Regiment, Texas Volunteers; Captain Rountree's Company Texas Partisan Rangers and (3d) Company I, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry. The company was divided March 20, 1862, and part of it organized as (2d) Company K of this regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 325, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery, New Mexico. Companies G and I were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

*This company was known at various times as Captain Melton's Company, Captain Clark's Company and Company K, Bates' Regiment, Texas Volunteers, and Company E, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 436, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies D, H and I were transferred from this command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were copied and filed. Letters of the remaining companies added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 234, Hdqrs. 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Det. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Company H was permanently detached from the organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 28 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies K, 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 234, Hdqrs. 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, dated November 2, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazos Coast Regiment.

*This company was known at various times as Captain Hamilton's Company, Company L and (2d) Company D, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, and (8d) Company D, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 434, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 221, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company E, 1st (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

*This company was known at various times as Captain Rountree's Company and (1st) Company C Bates' Regiment, Texas Volunteers, Captain Rountree's Company Texas Partisan Rangers and (3d) Company I, 12th Regiment Texas Infantry. The company was divided March 22, 1863, and part of it organized as (2d) Company K of this regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and B were artillery companies, C, D, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 434, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1863. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. 2d (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 12th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 6th and June 8, 1863, respectively. Companies D and F were transferred to Texas Infantry and Company B, 1st (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry, was transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 4, 1863, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment, Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazos Coast Regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1862, to January 4, 1863. A and D were artillery companies, E, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 60, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1863, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies E, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1863, and formed the 11th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1863. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 30, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1863. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 19th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 8th and June 8, 1863, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1863, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Bronson's Coast Regiment.

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and H were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 420, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies O, P and Q, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 2nd (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205 Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 25th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, 6th Battalion Texas Infantry and Company E, 11th (Spaight) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 61 Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was shown at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

This company was known at various times as Captain Carter's Light Artillery Company, Captain Bates's Light Battery and as Company H Bates Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company H 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.
 The organization originally consisted of twelve companies,
 A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies
 B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.
 Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment
 Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 400, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and R, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 431, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry.
 Letters of the remaining companies were closed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time
 until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry and formed the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th Regiments, Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 365, Hdqrs.
 Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 4, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from the organization and subsequently became the 1st Texas Field Battery, respectively.
 Companies G and H were organized February 20 and June 9, 1862, respectively. Companies D and E, Martin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 42, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.
 The organization was known at various times as the 4th Reg-
 ment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers,
 Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas
 Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, E, H and J were separated from the command by S. O. No. 431, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 17th (Brown's Battalion) Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th (Brown's) Regiments Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 386 Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery, New Companies G and B were organized February 20 and June 4, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, with the 1st Texas Infantry and Company H, 1st (Spain's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 52, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 18th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

A and D were artillery companies; E, G, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 431, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 431, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 2nd (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 2nd (Brown's) Regiment, Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 56 Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 24th and June 8, 1864, respectively. Companies D and F of the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th Regiment, Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 52 Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1864, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 60, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 61, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 104, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 1st and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company H, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brasoria Coast Regiment.

Col. J. Bates to Asst. Adj. Genl.
February 2nd 1862.

Inform. concerning leave of absence and detail of Capt. ^{John} Daniel C. M. 13 T. 1/2

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, possibly a list or report]

Velasco July 2nd 1862.

Genl. Hebert

Capt. Laval, of my Regiment will send you this

Capt. L. is a citizen of Smith County. He has raised a Company, comprised of a fine body of men, although several Companies had been raised in his County previous to his. Yet when the news reached him, that the Sea Coast was in danger, and that we wanted Soldiers to help us to defend our shores from the hostile invaders, he lost no time in organizing a Company. - But as stated above other Companies having already gone from the County, most of the efficient arms of that section were gone, and supposing that arms might be got, either from private individuals, or the Military Department, he hastened to our Coast.

Finding now that arms cannot be had in this section of the State to complete the arming of his Company, upon the suggestion of Capt. L. I give him a leave of absence and detail him to procure the arms if possible.

The Captain thinks if you would permit him to buy the arms, at the expense of our Government, that he could soon have his Company supplied;

I thought under all the circumstances, you might so authorize him to purchase, provided he did so at reasonable prices.

From my knowledge, and information of the Captain, I have no hesitation in saying he is entirely worthy, and justly entitled to entire confidence.

Very respectfully.

"This squad was also known as (3d) Company I 12th Regiment Texas Infantry. It was organized Oct. 1, 1862, to take effect from Oct. 1, 1862, and the men transferred to other companies of this regiment.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, E, G, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 40, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 49, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment, Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 25, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 26 and June 1, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F were attached to Texas Infantry and Company B, 12th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry, were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 6, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment, Texas Infantry and the Missouri Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

This squad was the result of an attempt which was made about April, 1862 to raise a company for this regiment. Some of the men were subsequently transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry and the remainder assigned to Company E of this regiment June 14, 1862.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, E, G, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were of Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 231, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies H, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 231, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of cavalry and artillery companies were changed until the organization consisted of ten companies. * This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; E, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies. A to K, in March, 1862, Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 226, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and M were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively. The organization was known at various times as the 8th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brasoria Cross Regiment.

and in answer to questions propounded to him by - I am the 2nd Lieut of Capt Perkins Company, and the accused Mr. Hook is a private in said Company, and said Company is in State Regt of Texas vols, on the 2nd of December 1861 this officer of the day returned at 8 o'clock P.M. I walked out to where the sentinels were posted, I saw no sentinels, there, and walked up & down the line & across it and saw no sentinels there, finally I heard some talking & walked down to where the accused was who challenged me, I told him he had no right to challenge any man from his post, and had no right to set down on his post or to leave it unless by special orders, & I commanded him to get up & walk on his post, he said he saw no one in walking his post all the time and that he be down if he did not set down when he got tired he was some forty feet from his post, and was beyond his Post, I was the regular officer of the day, and the accused was sent out as sentinels on said Post by the Sergeant of the guard - I saw the accused several times in his Post walking the same after he had replied to me as above - The other sentinels was at or near his Post sitting on a log talking with accused. The line was a new one established that morning for our Company four new lights at his posts -

About the 4th of December 1861, the guard were being relieved, I told them who was the sentinels talking to the accused on the night of the third, that he accused him to do Police duty for having set down on his Post, and so would the accused, & that the accused ought to be punished more, because he was away from his post, the accused said to me who was the officer of the day that by God every day had his day, that he was down of some dark night when he was sentinels of I did not get a bullet put through me down Cox Brown & Company were standing by when this occurred & several others whom I do not now remember. About a month since Capt Perkins discharged Cox playing in his camp by the members of his Company & established a set of Court of inquiry, appointing Levee Buff to take the oaths of the men to see what whether they played cards or knew of others who did play the accused stated that Capt Perkins has no right to stop and play that it was sent against the army regulations & he downed did they could, when he told like it 8 if he succeed they the other the board that they did not pay any attention to the other evidence by Lieut. Staff - an answer to a question by the Court the witness says that whenever I see him orders he obeys them reluctantly & the same way with Lieut. Benson, he then accused him about my well with the Capt. Lieut. Staff - Lieut. Benson has had him under arrest since November or so - The prisoner is not friendly towards me - I do not know whether the accused has ever been instructed in his duties as a sentry but he knows that several of Capt. Parker's Company had been punished for leaving sentry duty on their posts which posted as sentries I think private in Capt. Parker's Co. was duly seem for the prosecution - know nothing about the case - Private in Capt. Parker's Co. was duly seem for the prosecution - in answer to question propounded to him, he says that during present in the afternoon of Dec 1861, at the station of the Guard Lieut. Patten told Capt. Benson to put the accused back on Police duty should work say that on some dark night he sent Patten would get a ball through his leg up to the sentries in that way - I saw the accused back address Andrew Smith to go up to post made on the occasion when he was or sent to go there that night, he said that he did not look to me to be made when he stated to Lieut. Patten what I have related above?

Private E. C. Benson was duly seem for the prosecution and in answer to question propounded to him says - I together with the accused had been posted as sentries on the night of the 3rd of December, on a new line that had been established there Monday we had been out about 3/4 of an hour and Lieut. Patten came up to us and when Lieut. Patten came up to us and said that we were off of our post had no right to sit down - I told him we were in the new line which Lieut. Benson had put on the wall on the line that Lieut. Benson put in or he told me to come with him on which we were sitting, the line was some five or six steps from the line of work - On the next day at the Guard station Lieut. Patten told me that I would have to do Police duty for one day, and that Lieut.
Benson had to do Police duty for two days - and that I think said that every day would have his day & if he did not mind that some dark night when he Patten came around the sentries he would get a ball through his leg of the sentries - We were put on Guard that night of the 5th of Dec when some order we had been sitting only a few minutes when Lieut. Patten came up to us - I then saw the accused very early and Capt. Parker gave the order to disallow it -

2nd Sergeant H. P. Boone of Capt. Parker's Company was duly seem for the prosecution -
In answer to question propounded to him

he says - I am the second Sergeant of Capt Parker's Company in the Guard, and no man who accused established a part of the Guard were on the 1st relief at even o'clock I posted them back & came on the line, which was on New my, and had never been walked before by the Sentinel, I found some difficulty in tracing the walk but supposed I had found it, but thinking that the walk of that which was towards the Bench, I did in presence of that that he should should stop in his walk at a log which crossed across walk some fifteen or sixteen steps from the steps which was stuck up in front of the Guard tent which was was the standing steps between the walks of steps, - The old line which had previously been walked by the Sentinel, was next some 15 or twenty steps of the new line - I did not confuse with walk to the steps, neither did I still have a step at the log -
When I placed down a foot the accused out as usual
I saw them the Court says -

The Court adjourned till 2 o'clock P.M.
Monday 12 Dec 1861

2 o'clock P.M.
The Court met pursuant to adjournment present
Capt Rowland, Capt Mealy, Capt Matten, & of C Dwyler, Lieut Howard Judge Advocate present also Mr H Cook the accused - Parker's Company J R Harrison 3rd Sergeant in Capt Parker's Company was duly sworn for the prosecution in answer to question propounded to him he says the accused did not know that he would be a witness to sign a petition for Lieut Mealy about Parker's Company, he was an officer of Capt Parker's Company, he was that the petition was circulating among the members of the Company without fact - He had been known Andrew Double to go over to the fort to work after Double had refused to go - J R Smith private in Capt Parker's Company was duly sworn for the prosecution and in answer to question propounded to him says that there was a paper circulating among the members of Capt Parker's Company which was presented to him by that the accused & signed, there was nothing on the paper but some 10 or twelve names, but it was the understanding that it was to request Lieut Mealy & Parker's Company - and appeared to him no more heard in the matter than the others who had signed it -

J. B. Smith private in Capt Parker's Company
was duly sworn for the prosecution
in answer to question propounded to him
witness says that there was a paper circulating among the members of Capt Parker's Company which I signed among others

W H Black Private in Capt Perkins Company was duty bound for the defense you answer to questions propounded to him by the accused says I was present on the morning of the 4th of 1861, and I saw Patton with the accused that he was here to do police duty the accused in reply said that every day would have his duty & will have mine if you dont mind how you walk or are stepping on the line of the sidewalk one of these dark nights you will see a line put through you, I was standing right by the side
The accused says he had stated what he is charged with stating I would have heard it - I saw a paper in camp was lying among the Company of my own knowledge I do not know what was in the paper - I do not know who put the paper up - I have never seen the accused playing cards since Capt Perkins gave the order to discontinue card playing I have seen other members of the Company playing cards since said order I saw & took the accused in the guard house on the occasion when Andrew Smith was there & he was accusing Smith to go over to the work -

There was nothing but names on the paper when I required it, but I understood there was for the purpose of requesting Lieut. James Patton to resign their office - But handed me the paper to sign - This paper circulated at Capt Perkins Camp, Capt. James Thompson's Company, Lewis - Henry Smith 3rd Corp in Capt Perkins' Company was duty, came for presentation & was long in the proposed days - I heard the accused say about the time that Capt Perkins had put in the Lord saying, that they had no right or that he believed that they had no right to give such an order I cannot say what - I have heard some complaints about the order of his superior, but not now as there may others -

Ed - Captain private in Capt Perkins' Company was duty, came for the defense and in answer to questions propounded to him says I heard Capt the accused say to Lieut Patton when the Lieut told him - he must do better than that, my dog would have his dog he did not think that he would get a better thing fall but through some sent - night sleeping was his opinion

around the sentinels, I heard some private Andrew Smith to visit on the fact after he Smith had refused -

Smith Black Private in Capt Perkins' Company was duty came for the defense in answer to questions propounded says - I heard Capt say to Lieut Patton, well what my dog has his dog I will have mine after awhile ~~and~~ one of the sentinels of the duty would you will get a strong ball put through you by some of the sentinels sleeping around among them -

Capt J. W. Perkins was duty, came for the prosecution in answer to questions propounded says - At first he said did not perform his duties very cheerfully, the answer he gave was that he had a disorder, certainly he performs cheerfully under the orders I give him, when Lieut Patton gave him orders I have noticed that he obeys them reluctantly in some instances - I have thought that in some instances that he accused has treated by abruptly when disrespectful to Lieut Patton - At one time I ordered him out of my room for remarks made by him to Lieut Patton he obeyed my order left the room -

James Wylie private in Capt Perkins' Company duty, came for the prosecution -

In answer to questions propounded says - I heard Capt say that he would

Andrew Smith says near to the fact to credit when the said Smith was detached large sum should appear - He says the order given by the officers, some times, he says that at the orders that a good deal to say about them money and the amounts that received make when present;
 as order, seem to be done in a long way not much correction spent as any thing else there except - I think there is all fully credit between Mr Patton & Mr East.

Andrew Smith private of Capt Perkins Company was duly sworn for the defence & in answer to questions propounded when says - that the accused persuaded me to go over with the post to land that I would be made to be Court Martial -

The statements of the parties being thus in the possession of the Court, the Court was closed

*This company was known at various times as Captain Hamilton's Company, Company L and (2d) Company D, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company D, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 11, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies B, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 325, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 10th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and B were organized February 24 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 15th Spaight's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Melton's Company, Captain Clark's Company and Company K, Bates Regiment Texas Volunteers; and Company E, 13th Regt-ment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies,
A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies;
K, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.
Companies F, K and N were transferred to the 15th Regiment
Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 42, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and became Companies D, F and B, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 44, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, as March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the E, H (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205, Hdqrs.
Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization
and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and B were organized February 25th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Spain's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 13th Regt-
ment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers,
Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas
Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1862, to January 4, 1863. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1863, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 431, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas dated April 2, 1863, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1863. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1863. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 5th and June 8, 1863, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1863, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Cavalry Regiment.

This company was known at various times as Captain Hamilton's Company, Company L and (2d) Company D, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, and (2d) Company D, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; E, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 13th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 24th and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Grinn's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company M, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The company was divided March 2, 1862, and part of it organized as (3d) Company K of this regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 12, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 420, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 2d (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 220, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24 and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Grinn's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, 2d (Brown's) Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brainerd Coast Regiment.

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; E, G, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively of this organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 631, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time and the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 5th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 324, Hdqrs. Ins. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New companies G and H were organized February 24 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th Spaight's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 42, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, 13th Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brasoria Coast Regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 68, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 68, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 266, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 6th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company H, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 5th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Braxton's Regiment.

*This company was formerly Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Volunteers.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 1, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; E, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 614, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 305, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company B was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 24th and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was also at various times in the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Branch's Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

*This company subsequently became (1st) Company B, 12th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 305, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 14th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 24 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company M, 1st Light Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Branches Coast Regiment.

Judge Advocate.

Joseph Davis private in Capt S H Perkins Cavalry Company Bates Regt Leon vols the accused also present

The Judge Advocate having read the order concerning the Court asked private Joseph Davis if he had any objections to any member named therein to which he replied that he had not

The Court was then duly sworn by the Judge Advocate and the Judge Advocate was duly sworn by the presiding Officer of the Court in the presence of the accused

The accused requested permission to introduce B H Jones as his Counsel in the case which was granted by the Court, and the accused announced himself ready for trial -

The charges were read aloud by the Judge Advocate, (Judge Advocate addressing the accused) Private Joseph Davis you have heard the charges & specifications preferred against you how say you guilty or not guilty to which the accused Joseph Davis pleaded not guilty -

Capt S. H. Perkins of Bates Regiment of Leon vols was duly sworn - on the previous question by the Judge Advocate - State what you know in relation to the ~~st~~ specifications made against the accused - Answer - After my return from Columbia about the last days of Nov 1861 I found that Mr Davis from his manner had been drinking - he had been detailed

During my absence to work in the blacksmith shop near the grocery, his manner for about two or three days after my return from Columbia was that of a man who had drunk too much liquor - enough so to make him ^{hostile} ~~unpleasant~~ but not ~~unpleasant~~ - ^{troubled} - ~~troubled~~ the latter he became disrespectful me by me on the street he requested me to transfer him to another company, giving as a reason that I had ordered the grocery keeper from selling him liquor - About the last of Nov 1861 Col Bates showed me charges preferred by Joseph Davis against the officers of my company charging said officer with partiality. About the 11th of December or last of Nov 1861 I met Davis on the wharf and he asked me for permission to go to Columbia with ~~a man named~~ Smith that had detained there for service, I at first refused but Davis said that ~~if I would let him go~~ ~~he would not drink~~ ^{that he would not drink} ~~any~~ ~~liquor~~ ^{liquor} ~~at all~~ ^{at all} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~that~~ ^{that} ~~he~~ ^{he} ~~would~~ ^{would} ~~not~~ ^{not} ~~drink~~ ^{drink} ~~any~~ ^{any} ~~liquor~~ ^{liquor}
~~at all~~ ^{at all} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~that~~ ^{that} ~~he~~ ^{he} ~~would~~ ^{would} ~~not~~ ^{not} ~~drink~~ ^{drink} ~~any~~ ^{any} ~~liquor~~ ^{liquor} at all and, I saw Col. Bates ^{and} ~~he~~ ^{he} ~~was~~ ^{was} ~~in~~ ⁱⁿ ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~company~~ ^{company} to let Davis go to Columbia, the next day Davis met me again on the wharf and said to me that the officers of my company should probably believe the man that they kept liquor for them who would not let the man have it, the Davis also said to me that you exposed my family affairs before the Court Martial held to try me, whilst you were a witness against me you did this for the purpose of prejudice said Court Martial against me, which charge was absolutely false made for the purpose of charging disaffection to me - All this occurred at Camp Mass Prohain Court Lewis, Joseph Davis is a private in my company -

Question by the Court - Had you forbidden Private Davis to drink liquor - Answer - I had forbidden him to drink liquor -

Question by Council of Accused -

At what time did Davis request me to transfer him to another company - Answer - The day previous to the day he charged me with my two former affairs - Question by Council of Accused - Was he drinking at that time, Answer - I think he was the reason given by Davis to me for wishing to be transferred was that I had stopped his liquor & showed partiality -

Question by Council of Accused - I suppose that you inferred that these charges were made for the purpose of operations & a malicious purpose Answer - Yes because I considered them false

11

Lieut Wm Benson was duly sworn for the prosecution Question by Judge Advocate - State all you know in relation to the charges & specifications preferred by Capt Parkinson against Joseph Davis - Answer - I have seen Davis drunk twice, the last time was about the last of November 1861, he was too drunk to attend to his duty - properly, he was drunk at that time about two days, he was too drunk to attend to his duty - I have never heard Davis charge the officers with drunkenness, but he once remarked to me laughingly that Capt Parkinson was tipsy - some four or five days since Mr Davis showed me charges in writing against the officers of Capt Parkinson's Company for partially drunk charges made by him Davis and with the rest of the Regiment on the usual way, as Davis told me the charges of partially drunk made by Davis were false - Davis told me that the Capt Parkinson had exposed his family affairs before a previous Court Martial when he was summoned as a witness for the purpose of preparing the Court Martial against him -

Question by the Court - What is the character of Davis in camp - Answer - When sober he is an obedient good soldier, when drunk or drinking he is a very bad soldier -

Question by the Court - What did Davis say to you when he handed back to you the charges - Answer - he said that the Colonel Stone told him that he would have to make specifications against the Capt and each of the officers individually, of ~~disobedience~~ conduct outcoming an officer that he would not do it - The accused admits that he made the charges of partially drunk against the officers of Capt Parkinson's Company before the Colonel -

Question by Counsel of accused
How long has Davis been a member of Capt Parkinson's Company - Answer - About two months, during this time I have seen him drunk twice -

Lieut M J G Patton was duly sworn for the prosecution -

Question by Judge Advocate - State all you may know in relation to the charges & specifications preferred by Capt Parkinson against the accused Joseph Davis Answer - I have seen him considerably under the influence of liquor twice, the last time I saw him tipsy was in the course of the Capt, about the last day of November - whilst thus under the influence of liquor

he came into the room at camp used by the officers said that the officers of Capt Perkins' Company showed particularly that some men of the company were permitted to do things which if he should do he would be Court Martialled whilst they were not touch'd, he also said that Capt Perkins whilst he was gone in his testimony against him before a previous Court Martial had ^{allegedly} ~~expressed~~ his family affairs for the purpose of prejudicing the Court Martial against him and he also said that Capt Perkins was so drunk when he gave in his testimony before said Court Martial that he could hardly articulate -

Whilst here in Columbus Richard Court on love of absence it was generally talked of through the community that Davis had preferred charges against all the officers of Capt Perkins Company charging them with drunkenness especially that they would be Court Martialled - The 3 lists of Capt Perkins Company were in Columbus when Capt Perkins was 5 or 6 miles from town
The officers of the Company were shown as particularly among the men - The Capt was not drunk on the day he testified against Davis before the Court Martial - Question by the Court - Where did these matters occur
Answer - At Camp - Question by the Court
What is the character of Davis - Answer - When other Davis is a good soldier, valiant soldier, duties - Question by the Court - Has Davis any hatred or malice against Capt Perkins - Answer - I am satisfied that he does not like the Capt, but I do not know whether he has any malice against him -

Question by the Court - From what you heard in Columbus in relation to the Court Martial of the officers of Capt Perkins Company on charges preferred by Davis was or was not prejudice excited against said officers and Company, & was or was not an injury done to the reputations of said officers & Company Answer - I am certain that the reputations of the officers were injured by these charges being made in the community -

Question by the Council of the accused - When Davis said that Capt Perkins was left by Lieut Benson present - Answer he was present 2 Question by Council of accused - Was Davis laughing when he made the remark - Answer - He was not - 3 Question by Council of the accused -

Do you believe or think that anything Davis

would say could prejudice the officers of Capt Parker's Company in Proctor's County. Answer Yes it would with some who are ready to believe anything against us except charges who know nothing about us -

The Court adjourned till Twelve P.M.

9 o'clock A.M. 9th Dec 1861

The Court martial having been adjourned by order of the Colonel ordering the same on Friday last the date of December until this morning. The Court martial this morning was pursuant to said order present
Capt Rowles, Capt Mow, Capt Mollen Capt Douglas & Capt Harrison - Lieut Howard Judge Advocate present
Joseph Davis Parolee in Capt Parker's Co.
The accused also present -

Capt J M Douglas witness for prosecution duly sworn - Question by the Judge Advocate Capt Douglas state whether or not you were a member of the previous Court Martial before which the accused Joseph Davis was tried, if so state whether or not Capt J M Parker was examined as a witness for the prosecution before said Court Martial if so state what evidence if any, or what attempt or influence the said Parker made of the private family affairs of Joseph Davis, and also state whether or not the said J M Parker was drunk at the time of giving his testimony before said Court Martial against the said Joseph Davis Answer - I was a member of said Court Martial Capt J M Parker was examined as a witness before said Court Martial as a witness - on an issue was presented propounded to the Court whether he had or had not the said Davis with an certain order he said he had not heard from his dealers nor become with the said Davis he knew his the matter otherwise it would not concern the said Davis with any command, the witness was going on to give his answer, why he would not be heard by the Court, and also when he had been heard he did not think it prudent to the Court - I know of no other evidence or attempt of influence of the family affairs of Davis made by Capt Parker in his testimony before said

Court Martial - ~~He~~ Perkins was not drunk when he gave his testimony but his expression was that he was drinking -

Question by the Council of the accused - Can you say that the said Perkins did not mention or relate in his evidence any thing in relation to the private affairs of the said Davis - Answer - I was not so positively stated, my impression was that the Capt was going to relate the private difficulties between himself & the accused Davis, and he had said that he had had a former difficulty, never attempting to relate the history of that difficulty, when I stopped him - Question by Council of accused - Did you not think that Capt Perkins was under the influence of liquor when he gave his testimony before said Court Martial - Answer - Yes I am satisfied that he was drinking -

He I mean Private in Capt Perkins Company was duly sworn for the defence -

Question by Council of accused - How often have you seen the accused Capt Davis drunk since you have been in command of Capt Perkins Co. Answer - I have seen him slightly under the influence of liquor about the last days of Nov. 1861 & was with him several times a day during the last days of Nov. 1861 - Question by Council for Defence - Have you ever seen the commissioned officers of Capt Perkins company drunk, Answer - I have never seen them drunk, I have seen one of them under the influence of liquor, so that he would have to look down within himself to recall to -

Question by Council of accused - ~~That what acts of partiality you have seen either of any, during the trial of the accused officers of Capt Perkins Company and the members of the Company -~~ Answer - Yes they have shown partiality, and I do not think the charge was unjustly made against the officers of Capt Perkins Company by Capt Davis - I have never seen the Capt show any partiality.

Line the - (Archival)

Question by the Council of the accused - Were you present at the officers room when the accused said that Capt Perkins was left - Answer - Yes I was at the door of the room, and heard Davis when he was saying in a private way that the Capt was left & that he was not present - Capt Stevens or Capt Patten was present or not - The conversation was had about the time of the day the officers were present in their room - Question by the Council - Have you ever heard Jones the accused alouder any other officers of your Company - Answer - I never have, neither have I heard him speak disrespectfully of his Officers -

Edwin, G. Bostwick Sergeant Major of Col Bates Regiment was duly sworn for the defence - Question by Council of accused - Did you not act as counsel for the accused Davis in his trial before a previous Court Martial, answer - Yes - Question by Council of accused - Did or not Capt Parker in his testimony before said Court mention anything in relation to the former matter of Joseph Davis - Answer - I heard Capt Parker say nothing about the family affairs of the accused Davis -

George Macleod Druggist in Capt Parker's Company was duly sworn for the defence - There were members of Capt Parker's Company for two months here were seen Davis under the influence of liquor but not me, I was only during the last days of November 1861 - I was in the blacksmith shop with Davis when he was there - I believe I left here about the 20th Nov 1861 - but I did not see Davis then under the influence of liquor - in the camp - I was questioned by Council of accused - Have you ever known any of the officers of Capt Parker's Company under the influence of liquor answer - There not I have seen ^{any} take a drink - liquor can be obtained by promises - I have seen them buy it - Davis could get liquor where he was working together in the blacksmith shop before this time when he wanted it - Have you ever seen the officers of Capt Parker's Company other particularly the members thereof - I cannot say that I have -
Question by the Court - While you were working with Davis in the shop did you ever see him drink liquor - Answer Yes he bought it by the drink - these drinks are of many or I saw them (two) while we were working together -

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 12, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; K, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 620, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 621, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 305, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th Spaight's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1861, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Braxton Coast Regiment.

This company was successively designated as Captain Ballou's Company; Captain Ballou's Company and (1st) Company A, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company B, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.

Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 434, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 235, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 13th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 3th and June 3, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry, transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regt. Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and H were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry, by S. O. No. 693, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and E, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 693, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 1004, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24th and June 9, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spright's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

A and D were artillery companies, E, G, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 436, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies J, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 494, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (direct) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry by S. O. No. 306 Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 12th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 1st and June 8, 1864, respectively. Companies D and F united as the 12th Texas Infantry and Company B, 1st (Spaight) Battalion Texas Infantry, was transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 66 Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1864, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Bramora Cross Regiment.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.

Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of this command by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment: Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 38, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 14th and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Grinn's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Branches' Lost Regiment.

*This company was known at various times as Captain Hamilton's Company, Company L and (2d) Company D, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, and (2d) Company D, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 12th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24th and June 9, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Grimes' Battalion Texas Infantry transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Cavalry Regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1862, to January 4, 1863. A and D were artillery companies; E, G, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and became Companies J, F and H, respectively. The organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from its command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1863. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 8, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 14th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company M, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 13th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Houston April 8th 1865 -

Col. E. P. Murrell
Adj. Gen. 2, 2, 2, 2

By virtue of Genl Order No. 1, Jan 21st 65, I was appointed by Capt S. Howell, Comd. of Det West Texas, Adj. Gen. for the Assessment of Property in Smith Co, and an application was made by him at same time for my detail & the same approved and forwarded by Genl McCulloch to Dist of Tex. and I was ordered to duty with Capt Howell until said application could be heard from.

I was at the time away from my Command (Bato Det) on furlough and as it had nearly expired, I wrote Col Roberts of Labor Bureau, on the subject, stating that the Adj. Gen. of Smith Co had informed me that having no detail from West of Tex, I should report at Houston, and if such detail had not been made, to report to my Command.

On March 29th Col Roberts wrote May Taylor on the subject, stating, to have renewed the application for my detail, supposing the other to have been lost in consequence of the bad weather.

Having in my possession instructions from Genl Home the present Comd. of Det West Texas - many of which are but partially carried out, and no one appointed in my place to turn them over to, and under the present orders of the War Dept Bureau, no one can act unless detailed, I would therefore respectfully ask, that I be ordered to report to Genl Home at Fort Worth for duty as Adj. Gen., until the application of Col Roberts can be acted upon.

I would further state that I enlisted nearly four years ago, have served faithfully in the field, am now in bad health, and the present furlough is the only one received since my enlistment.

I would respectfully call your attention to the enclosed papers on the subject above, and would feel grateful for an early answer. I am Sir,
Your Obedt Servt.

Sir

The object of this communication is to inform you that no detail has been made for this County pursuant to Act of the 1st of the 18th Congress, which directs the Major Genl Comdr of the 1st Division to be appointed as contemplated by said Act, but no order has been made in consequence, but owing to compliance to the Act and by receipt of the same, the application for the detail has not been made accordingly.

John B. Brown is my excellent gentleman of the County, Major Genl. Walker, being the applicant.

It is my duty to inform you of the importance of settling the claims of this County as a matter of justice and fidelity and the competency of the gentleman selected. Mr. Brown will submit your papers and has been authorized to return to the office to expedite the matter.

Let Robert make a proper application and remove the application as you will be informed.

*This company was known at various times as Captain Hamilton's Company, Company L and (2d) Company D Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, and (2d) Company D, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 11, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and B were artillery companies; C, D, E and F were cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 611, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K. In March, 1862, Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 305, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K Hubbs' Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, E and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

*This company subsequently became Company M, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and became Companies D, F and B, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from that command by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, on March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 264, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from the organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 15th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 15th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazos Coast Regiment.

Howell's Company, Company L and (2d) Company D, Hauer's Resident Texas Volunteers and (2d) Company D, 13th Regiment
Texas Infantry

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies,
A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861 to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, R, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.
Companies F, K and M were transferred by the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry to S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and became companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, G, J and L were separated from this command by S. O. No. 434, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Artillery.
Letters of the remaining companies were changed and
new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of 102 companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, and formed the 1st of Tex. N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization
and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New companies G and H were transferred February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F were transferred to the 13th Texas Infantry by and Company B transferred to the 14th Texas Infantry by transfer to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862, and became companies A, E and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Resident Texas Volunteers, Bates Regiment, Texas Volunteers,
Bates Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment, Texas
Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

This company subsequently became (3d) Company F, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry. The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and B were artillery companies, C, D, E, F, G, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 424. Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the company by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K. In March, 1862, Cavalry Companies G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 2d (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 266 Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from the organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 22 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F (Brown's) Battalion Texas Infantry transferred to the organization by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively. The organization was designated as Company F, 13th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This company was known at various times as Captain
Harrison's Company, Captain Board's Company, (1st) Company G and (2d) Company C, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (3d) Company C, 11th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies,
A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies;
B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.
Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 11th Regiment
Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 42, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 42, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 11th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and
new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies. A, G, I and K were transferred March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 11th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 225, Hdqrs.
11th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, dated November 2, 1862. Artillery
Company H was permanently detached from this organization
and subsequently became the 10th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 6th and June 8, 1862,
respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist.
TEX. V. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1864, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Reg-
ment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers,
Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 11th Regiment Texas
Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

*This company was known at various times as Captain Rountree's Company and (1st) Company C, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; Captain Rountree's Company Texas Partisan Rangers and (2d) Company I, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry. The company was divided March 18, 1862, and part of it organized as (2d) Company K of this regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A and M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 3, 1862. A and M were artillery companies, K, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 630, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies H, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 630, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 325, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 14th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

Remarks:

*This company was known at various times as Captain Harrison's Company, Captain Foard's Company, (1st) Company G and (2d) Company C, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company C, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 400, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 404, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 8, 1862, and formed the 19th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 388, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and I were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazos Coast Regiment.

*This company was successively designated as Captain Ballowe's Company; Captain Ballowe's Company and (1st) Company A, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company B, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 6th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 15th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. This company was successively designated as Captain Ballowe's Company; Captain Ballowe's Company and (1st) Company A, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company B, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; K, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 492, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the company by S. O. No. 494, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of 120 companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 599, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., H. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 8th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., H. Sir

As the character of St Edwards and the name of a gentleman, has been widely circulated, in the community as well as about of it, leading to various, losses, and money. I think it me, in the name of St Edwards, that a committee should be con-

*This company was known at various times as Captain Rountree's Company and (1st) Company C. Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Captain Rountree's Company Texas Partisan Rangers and (2d) Company L, 12th Regiment Texas Infantry. The company was divided March 28, 1862, and part of it organized as (2d) Company K of the regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 12, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 620, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 355, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 624 Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 624 Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies. A to K, in March, 1862, Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 124 Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 14 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company H, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62 Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

This company was known at various times as Captain Harrison's Company, Captain Beard's Company, (1st) Company G and (2d) Company C, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company C, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and N were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 488, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 684, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 8, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and N were organized February 14th and June 8, 1864, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1864, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

This company was known at various times as Captain Harrison's Company, Captain Foard's Company, (1st) Company G and (2d) Company C, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (3d) Company C, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 22, 1861, to January 1, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 48, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of this organization. Companies B, D, E and J were separated from this command by S. O. No. 48, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 285, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ark., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 6th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ark., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Spanish Coast Regiment.

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 11, 1862, to January 4, 1863. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1863, and became Companies D, F and B, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 434, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1863, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of 122 companies, A to K, in March, 1863. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 30th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 234, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1863. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 24th and June 8, 1864, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company H, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1863, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Bracoria Coast Regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 4th Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies B, D, H and J, respectively. This organization, Companies B, D, H and J were separated from the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of cavalry and artillery added from time to time to the new companies of cavalry and artillery were changed and with the organization composed of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies B, D, H and J were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 2nd Hdqrs. Tex. N. Mex. and Ariz., dated February 15th and June 6, 1862. Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Battalion Texas Infantry. Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 4th Reg't Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 2nd Hdqrs. Tex. N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became the 15th Battalion Texas Cavalry. Companies B, D, H and J were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 430, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 285, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company H, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively. The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brasoria Coast Regiment.

This company was known at various times as Captain Harrison's Company, Captain Ford's Company, (1st) Company C and (2d) Company C, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company C, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of this organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 14th and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Branchin Coast Regiment.

17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies;
B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.
Companies G, H and M were transferred to the 12th Regiment
Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 333, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and B, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from that organization by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 8, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and
new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time
until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 285, Hdqrs.
Dist. of Tex., Mex. and Arn., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization
and subsequently became the 19th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24th and June 2, 1862,
respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., Mex. and Arn., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.
The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers,
Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas
Infantry and the Brazoria Coon Regiment.

*This company subsequently became (1st) Company I, 12th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 16th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 420, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 420, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 324, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 10th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 14th and June 9, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company M, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 12, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Southern Coast Regiment.

June 23 1863

I beg leave respectfully to submit to you my resignation, as 2^d Lieut of Capt. Jones' Artillery Company, within the Post of Velasco Texas. My reasons for doing so are, first that I feel myself utterly incompetent to fill the position of an Artillery Officer, as I have had no experience in any branch of the Military since exchanging Cavalry into which branch I was originally Mustered, and secondly, because I desire more active service. I intend this resignation as unconditional and immediate.

Yours truly

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 16th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 68, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 68, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K. In March, 1862, Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 100, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 12 and June 9, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spain's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 82, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

The records show that Captain Thompson commanded the 3d Co. (G), 13th Texas Infantry (also known as Bates' Reg't), C.S.A., but there are no muster rolls of said company on file, and no record has been found of service, capture or parole of a man named C.A. Fitzgerald as a member of that or any other Texas organization that was in the Confederate States Army.

However, a return of the 13th Reg't
Texas Infantry, C.S.A., for June, 1864, shows that one C.D. Fitzgerald, private, enlisted in Co. G, by transfer from Co. H of Bates' Reg't, June 10, 1864, at Velasco. His name, however, is not borne on the muster roll on file of said Co. H, which cover from Nov. 4, 1861, to Dec. 31, 1863, nor has anything additional relative to him been found.

*This company subsequently became (1st) Company B, 12th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; H, G, M and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and N were transferred to the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 420, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1863. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 284 Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ark., dated November 4, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and B were organized February 24 and June 8, 1863, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spang's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ark., dated November 12, 1863, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Hays' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 486 Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 486 Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 384 Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 6th and June 9, 1864, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company E, Hays' Spanish's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62 Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1864, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies U, P and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 205, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 15th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Artillery Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spang's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Cavalry Regiment.

Remarks:

*This company was known at various times as Captain Harrison's Company, Captain Foard's Company, (1st) Company G and (2d) Company G, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (3d) Company C, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 225, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas dated April 3, 1862, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 225, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and B were organized February 14th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

*This company was known at various times as Captain Harrison's Company, Captain Foard's Company, (1st) Company G and (2d) Company C, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company C, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and B were artillery companies, C, D, E and F were cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and L were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 428, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 494, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, on March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 388, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and I were organized February 14th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Burnett's Co. Regiment.

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 420, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 421, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 284, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24th and June 8, 1864, respectively. Companies D and F Griffin's Houston Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Harris) Regiment Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1864, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

Remarks:

This company was successively designated as Captain Ballowe's Company; Captain Ballowe's Company and (1st) Company A, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company B, 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 16th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 2d (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 222, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 6th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, (1st) Spright's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 12, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brown's Cavalry Regiment.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 18, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; E, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from the command by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 2d (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 10th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 6th and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 11th (Spright's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dep. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 12, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment, Texas Infantry and the Brown's Cavalry Regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and L were transferred to the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 2d (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 225, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 12th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 14th and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th Light Artillery Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazer's Cont. Regiment.

*This organization originally consisted of twelve companies A to M which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; E, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 68, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 68, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies A to K in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 24th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 124, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 24 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, Holt (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, E and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Bernard's Company.

*This company was known at various times as Captain Melton's Company, Captain Clark's Company and Company K, Bates Regiment Texas Volunteers; and Company E, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 481, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 494, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 25th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 304, Hdqrs. Dep't. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 6, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 10th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 5th and June 6, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, 6th and 8th Texas Infantry and Company G, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 82, Hdqrs. Dep't. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 4th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment, Texas Infantry and the Bronson's Coast Regiment.

Harrison's Company, Company L, and (2d) Company D, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company D, 12th Regiment
Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies,
A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies;
B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry.
Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 12th Regiment
Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of this organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 624, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and
until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs.
12th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, dated November 4, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization
and subsequently became the 10th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 12th and June 9, 1862,
respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers,
Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 12th Regiment Texas
Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

This company was known at various times as Captain Hamilton's Company, Company L, and (2d) Company D, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, and (2d) Company D, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 64, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 13th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies. A to K, in March, 1862, Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Tex. (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 224, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 14th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24 and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dept. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazos Coast Regiment.

Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 481, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 1, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 206, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 14th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F Giffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company K, 10th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 61, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the 15th Texas Cavalry Regiment.

This company was known at various times as Captain Bountree's Company and (1st) Company C Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; Captain Bountree's Company Texas Partisan Rangers and (3d) Company I 13th Regiment Texas Infantry. The company was divided March 22, 1862, and part of it organized as (2d) Company K of this regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 6th Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, E and J were separated from this command by S. O. No. 2nd Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 2nd Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 19th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 14th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 6th Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and I, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 13th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Brazoria Coast Regiment.

This company was known at various times as Captain Mountree's Company and (1st) Company C. Bates Regiment Texas Volunteers, Captain Mountree's Company Texas Partisan Rangers and (3d) Company I, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry. The company was divided March 23, 1862, and part of it organized as (3d) Company K of this regiment.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 11, 1861, to January 1, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 424, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 225, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 8, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 10th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and H were organized February 5th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Smith's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, Hartsfield's Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

This company was known at various times as Captain Melton's Company; Captain Clark's company and Company E, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, and Company E 13th Regiment Texas Infantry.

This organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to M, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies, E, C, H and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and E, respectively, of that organization. Companies B, D, H and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 12th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, G, I and K were transferred to the 15th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 5th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 2, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 16th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and E were organized February 24th and June 2, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Green's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 22, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 11, 1862, and became Companies A, K and L, respectively.

The organization was known at various times as the 6th Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers, Bates' Battalion Texas Volunteers, the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry and the Hancock Coast Regiment.

*This company was successively designated as Captain Morrow's Company; Captain Morrow's Company and (1st) Company A, Bates' Regiment Texas Volunteers; and (2d) Company B, 15th Regiment Texas Infantry.

The organization originally consisted of twelve companies, A to L, which were organized on various dates from September 17, 1861, to January 4, 1862. A and D were artillery companies; B, C, E and I cavalry, and the other companies were infantry. Companies F, K and M were transferred to the 15th Regiment Texas Infantry by S. O. No. 69, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and became Companies D, F and H, respectively, of this organization. Companies B, D, E and I were separated from this command by S. O. No. 69, Hdqrs. Dept. of Texas, dated April 2, 1862, and formed the 11th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry. Letters of the remaining companies were changed and new companies of cavalry and artillery added from time to time until the organization consisted of ten companies, A to K, in March, 1862. Cavalry Companies A, B, I and K were transferred to the 11th (Brown's) Battalion Texas Cavalry, and formed the 11th (Brown's) Regiment Texas Cavalry, by S. O. No. 20, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N. Mex. and Ariz., dated November 9, 1862. Artillery Company H was permanently detached from this organization and subsequently became the 11th Texas Field Battery. New Companies G and J were organized February 8th and June 8, 1862, respectively. Companies D and F, Griffin's Battalion Texas Infantry and Company B, 11th (Spaight's) Battalion Texas Infantry were transferred to this organization by S. O. No. 62, Hdqrs. Dist. of Tex., N.
